

Support and development worker job

We are a self-advocacy group founded and run by adults with a learning disability. We need someone to join us, to:

- Help our 500+ members find out about issues that affect them, and support them to talk to the people who provide services.
- Organise meetings and other events, support our members to take part in them across Manchester.
- Maintain our social media, help develop our website and newsletter. Promote the use of accessible and easy read information.
- Support the development and delivery of self advocate's projects

Please Download an application pack from our website.
